APRIL 2024

Gina and I wish all of you a very blessed and Holy Easter.

May all your Easter eggs be boiled. Remember one Easter Mom colored a raw egg and put Dad's name on it. Us kids couldn't wait until he was going to eat it and it was raw. A fun memory.

God's Blessing to all: Linda

Sharing of Memorabilia

When going through Dad and Mom's things after Mom died did any of you find photos or letters or notes that you would like to share in the newsletter? Last month I shared a letter Mom had received from her brother Ed when he was in World War II. Mom was just a young girl at the time missing her older brother and worrying about his safety, I'm sure the whole family was praying for Ed to return to their family in one piece and he did. I was planning on putting another letter of Ed's in this issue, but I put them away so well I can't find them right now, but as soon as this issue is printed there they will be. Linda

Oh, Shout with Glory

You are all invited to come and listen to 200 men join together in a festival concert on Saturday, April 27, 2024, 7 PM at St. John's Abbey Church in Collegeville, Minnesota

The participating courses are all part of the AMC of A (Associated Males Chorus of America) and represent communities from Minnesota , Wisconsin and North Dakota.

The concert will be a combination of individual chorus performances, as well as 10 songs sung by the entire group.

The Cold Spring area Maennerchor is sponsoring this year's Big Sing, which Duane (Duke) is a member of

Visit the website for ticket info, or you can contact Duane at 320-980-4625 or Jermayne at 320-293-7603.
